SOURCE:

1. The population of Bohemia is in confusion over the currency exchange. The majority of the populace is postponing its exchange of currency until the last day because of this confusion. Large numbers of Border Guard (PS) troops are present in Prague. this is to meet the case of possible disturbances over the currency exchange.
2. According to another source, considerable confusion has been created by the currency exchange. The population is waiting for further announcements before changing its money. PS troops in the area of the East German-Czech border have been reduced to skeleton strength.
